

HAAS STORYBOARD

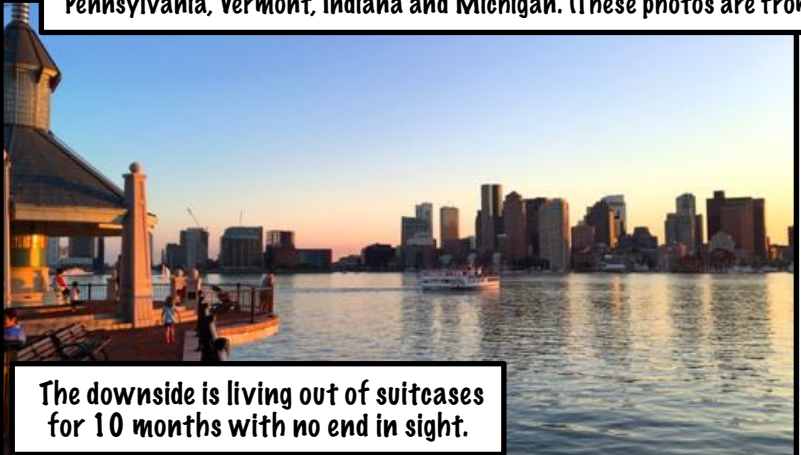

October 2016

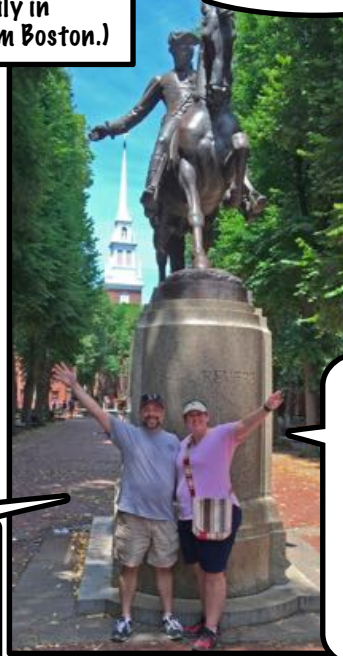

During our stay with Holly's parents Beck & Dave Beech (above right) we visited Holland, Michigan and toured a working windmill from the Netherlands.

IT'S GREAT TO INCLUDE ANDREW AND HOLLY AT BIRTHDAYS AND FAMILY REUNIONS AGAIN.

Cross-country travels have allowed us to visit friends and family in Pennsylvania, Vermont, Indiana and Michigan. (These photos are from Boston.)

The downside is living out of suitcases for 10 months with no end in sight.

Andrew's Uncle Chick celebrating 70 in PA

I miss my old friends and have yet to develop strong female friendships here. Andrew is itching to join his team in North Carolina. We are both essentially foreigners in our own country as South Africa was more familiar than America feels.

For the first time in nine years we're struggling to raise support. As we transition from Africa, apparently some friends have a misconception thinking we've "returned to the land of luxury" where needs are easily met. Unfortunately this is not the case. Big change is a sacrifice.

The Visual Media Dept. has a new name: TWR MOTION

SINCE JANUARY OUR SUPPORT HAS CLIMBED FROM 50% TO 77%. LIKE THIS CHINESE LANTERN IT'S RISEN SLOW AND STEADY TOWARD THE GOAL.

MY TEAM'S INVITED ME TO BE PART OF A TRIP TO NORTH AFRICA AT THE END OF THIS MONTH.

I'LL HELP COMPLETE THE ONESTORY PROJECT THEY'VE BEEN BUSY WITH THIS PAST YEAR.

THE VAN LEASE ENDED IN SEPTEMBER SO HERE IN SAINT LOUIS (WITH OVER 200 THOUSAND MILES), OUR GARAGE MADE IT READY TO SELL TO HELP FUND ANOTHER MISSIONARY VAN ALREADY ON THE ROAD.

A BIG THANK YOU GOES OUT TO FELLOWSHIP GREENVILLE FOR FUNDING THE PURCHASE OF OUR FIRST FAMILY VEHICLE IN AMERICA.

RIGHTEOUS RIDES' MECHANICS REPLACED A STEERING BEARING AND SEVERAL OTHER WORN PARTS. THE 2005 CHRYSLER HAS SOME RUST BUT IS STILL IN GOOD SHAPE.

So far we've driven our van 20,000 miles, sent 120 emails, dialed the phone 109 times, stamped and mailed 240 letters, and preached five sermons.

We've met people at 95 different appointments (including 19 dinners, 16 lunches and dozens of church and coffee shop rendezvous). We've shared about our ministry to Sunday schools, small groups, children's church and youth groups.

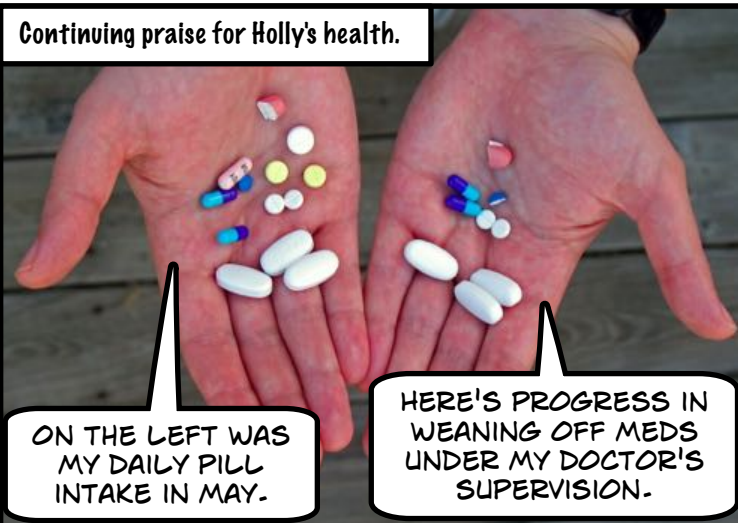

WHEN YOUR SON-IN-LAW COMES TO TOWN, PUT HIM TO WORK.

DAVE BEECH BUYS, RENOVATES AND SELLS PROPERTIES.

HELPING HIM BETWEEN APPOINTMENTS HELPS ME FEEL PRODUCTIVE.

Continuing praise for Holly's health.

ON THE LEFT WAS MY DAILY PILL INTAKE IN MAY.

HERE'S PROGRESS IN WEANING OFF MEDS UNDER MY DOCTOR'S SUPERVISION.
