Praying for Wisdom

We've made an offer to purchase a home only ten minutes from the TWR office. It has three bedrooms plus a garage converted into an extra room so there should be enough space to set up a home where we can adopt children and expand our family next year. We are praying that if this is not the right house for us, that God will make it very clear during the inspection and appraisal before we close.

OneStory North Africa Project Update

The animation is virtually finished on the TWR MOTION Bible story videos. Once we have the music recordings, we will send everything to TWR coworker and friend Nathan Dunlop in South Africa. He will spend October and November adding sound effects and creating a final stereo mix. We give praise that we are still on schedule to deliver the finished films to the local workers by Christmas so they can begin release in January. Please continue to lift up the work in both the USA and Africa because there is still much to do on two continents.

Speaking of MOTION, please pray for Tyler & Jen Church. They're new team members who just reached 100% now preparing to move to North Carolina from Oregon. They're in the middle of their own process of purchasing a home for a growing family.

Siloam Videos

As our time at Siloam Missionary Homes ends, Andrew made a farewell gift for our hosts. He produced a series of short videos to help promote this unique ministry. Below are some thumbnails. You can watch all eight at vimeo.com/siloamhomes.

Sunday, Funny Sunday

Sept. 10, as we left Siloam for church (an hour away) we saw a missionary family who had just moved into one of the other houses in their car by the exit. Holly waved as we drove past. Everyone is friendly in rural North Carolina so we're used to waving at other cars because they often wave at us. What we didn't expect was this family to follow us! Fifty minutes later we pulled into a gas station and talked. They explained in broken English that they thought we were someone else. By then it was too late to get to their service on time so we invited them to keep following us and join us afterwards for lunch. We'd packed chicken salad and veggies and there was enough for six people. We had a great time getting to know this Brazilian family spending the next year learning English in preparation for serving in Thailand. We don't speak Portuguese so we gave them good English practice. Please pray for all the families at Siloam.

Report from West Africa

God is still working around the world through ministry we were part of years ago. Recently, we received an update about our friend Oma (not his real name) from the Kanuri-Yerwa tribe, an unreached people group of six million in Nigeria. We first met Oma 11 years ago in 2006 at the Mali training event in West Africa where we also were introduced to each other. Andrew continued to work with Oma as a radio development director and over the years we have asked you to pray for this story set which finally began airing from TWR's West Africa AM transmitter in October 2014. In the past three years, God has begun to answer your prayers.

Kanuri villagers listening to radio

More than 200 Kanuri-Yerwa people are listening to the 12 Bible stories by radio and many have indicated a decision to follow Jesus! This is amazing when you consider that Oma was once one of only a handful of believers. Many of his tribe are displaced and live in camps because of violence. The government provides food but wants to disband the camps soon. The established church is afraid to associate with these new believers so if the camps are disbanded they must return home where their new faith puts their lives in danger. Oma visited the camps in June to provide ministry resources to help grow their faith and also to help with their physical needs. Another tool he is using is the JESUS Film in their language.

Praise God for answering prayers! Please pray for new believers to grow in relationship with God and the local church to welcome them as brothers in Christ. Pray that new believers will be bold to share their faith in the midst of persecution. Also, pray for TWR, local missionaries and others who serve unreached peoples. Thank you for your partnership which helps workers like Oma deliver the gospel to people for the first time!
