

HAAS STORYBOARD

Andrew (with his Dad right) introduces his nephew to pinball.

We were able to spend the last week of November in Maryland with Andrew's family for what we like to call "Thanksmas" (Thanksgiving dinner followed by a Christmas gift exchange).

We spent the last week of December in Myrtle Beach with Holly's family. This is a special gathering with family celebrating her newly retired parents finally able to spend winters somewhere other than Michigan. We are happy for them to have God give them something they've wanted for many years. It's certainly nice to have them living much closer to Raleigh.

HOLLY TRAVELING OVERSEAS

Holly at a Christmas market in Germany.

Thank you for your prayers for Holly's health since she resumed solo work travel in September. December 5-10 (on only three weeks' notice) she took a five-day trip to Germany scouting a summer missions trip for our Raleigh church. There was very good fellowship and connections with German partners. Prayers were answered as God provided clarity of vision and a specific people group to minister to six months from now.

Giving and Receiving Training

Andrew telling the history of the Bible December 8.

While Holly was traveling, Andrew took a three-day coaching skills workshop. It's important to help new missionaries raise their initial support by drawing on our experience and Scriptures that reveal how God likes to provide for his children.

He also was asked to help one of the pastors of our church by preparing a one-hour class before church on the authority of the Scriptures. This was well received by college students who attended and may lead to similar classes on other topics as requested.

MORE VIDEO MINISTRY DURING THE HOLIDAYS

Our partners in North Africa set up a new OneStory campaign using the two animated episodes related to Jesus' birth during the month of December. We appreciate your prayers as missionaries in the field refine their strategy to include using certain times of the year as they look for open hearts in closed countries. You are always with us everywhere we go and share in the work because nothing in our ministry is possible without friends like you.

Sincerely,

Andrew & Holly
